

GROUND FLOOR

PLEASURES AND PRESSURES OF SMARTPHONES

18:30 – 22:00

Capture the joys and pains of living with your smartphone by contributing to this collaborative instant photography installation, led by King's researcher Dr Zeena Feldman.

DETOX JAM

18:30 – 20:00

Detox your brain and jam with stellar musicians from south London's improvised music scenes, including singer Plumm, Luis Domeneh Plana on flute, rapper mandeep. and harpist Marysia Zofia Osuchowska. Listen to soothing sounds and uplifting vocals or join in with your own rhythm, words and melodies. Bring your instrument if you wish.

DETERIORATION DANCE

20:00 – 22:00, AT REGULAR INTERVALS

Dancer and body contortionist Kaner Flex confronts the internal impact of sex addiction through a series of brutal physical performances.

DJ SETS

20:00 - 22:00

Providing the perfect music backdrop, DJs Killcross and LostInTottenham will satisfy all your musical cravings with a riotous mix of hip-hop and urban tunes.

LOWER GROUND FLOOR

> ATRIUM

PROTEST PRESS

18:30 – 22:00

Make a statement about addiction in this banner making workshop with Protest Press, a collective challenging the means of protest and inspiring powerful activism.

> THEATRE

OFF THE HOOK: ADDICTION IN SE LONDON

19:00 – 19:45

What do communities in South East London think about alcohol, tobacco and cannabis? Join King's researcher Catherine El Zerbi, clinician Nicola Kalk and Dose of Society, who have made an incredible film for us, in this talk exploring different perceptions of addiction.

ADDICTION: WHAT, WHY AND WHO

20:15 – 21:00

Explore the science and philosophy of addiction with King's academics and students Amir Englund, Sally Marlow, Patrick Butlins and Sanah Ahsan. What is addiction? Why does it happen? Who is affected? And what do our new understandings mean for treatment?

FIRST FLOOR

> GALLERY

HOOKED EXHIBITION

18:30 – 22:00

Developed in association with people who have a lived experience of addiction and leading addiction researchers from King's College London, the HOOKED exhibition features established and up-and-coming artists and photographers from across the globe.

SUGAR TABLE DESTRUCTION

19:30 - 19:40

Watch what happens when a cup of tea is made on Atelier 010's sugar table.

> STUDIO

MEASURING UP

19:00 – 19:20, 19:45 – 20:05, 20:45 – 21:05

Lots of us enjoy a drink. And do this responsibly with an understanding of the risks, right? Come along to this cocktail making workshop with King's researcher Sadie Boniface to explore perceptions and misconceptions surrounding 'normal' drinking.

Please note this activity is for over 18s only. Sign up at the entrance to the studio.